THINK SPRING!

Happy Endings

When a kind lady rescued four kittens born to a feral mom she asked if we could take them. She worked with them until she felt they were adoptable. The two girls were quickly adopted but the two boys were not as adoptable and remained at the shelter for months. They eventually warmed up to attention and one was adopted. When the lady heard there was a brother she also adopted him. They have flourished in their new forever home. Thanks Amanda for loving our Garfield and Grover. This was a happy ending times two!!!

We're so excited to become a @PetSmartCharities grantee! Grant funds will go directly toward helping more pets through: adoptions, transport, spay/neuter! Thanks to your donations at PetSmart stores, we're able to make an even bigger difference for pets in our community.

We had a young lady visit the shelter to present a donation for the kitties. This donation was special. Eleanor had been saving her allowance to give her donation. She gave her money and stayed to play with the cats for a while.

It is so important for parents to teach their children to show kindness and compassion to both people and animals. Eleanor certainly showed what an awesome little girl she is by bringing her donation and joy to a group of homeless kitties.

Terry stopped by the shelter looking for a friend for his dog. He looked at several possibilities but he decided on Smokey. Smokey has a little "cattitude" from time to time and he felt it would be a good fit with his dog who is bigger than Smokey. He was right. After the initial adjustment they have become fast friends. Smokey is now called Dart because of the way she darts around the house playing with her new friend. Another happy ending!
